CONDITIONS Errors and Omissions Clause: By virtue of aforementioned the insured will not be harmed in particular by an erroneous or incomplete description or modification of the occupation or increased risk or involuntary and/or inadvertent violation of a term, condition or guarantee, of the risk of the goods or another item, or inadvertent omission of locations to be insured, provided that the official of the Insured responsible for the insurance provides notice of this to the Insurers or their authorized representatives as soon as practicable once discovered, even after an incident that affects any of the insured matters subject to any of the above mentioned situations. The Insured is obliged to give notice to the Company within 30 days from the day on the error or omission is detected. After the deadline indicated, this overprotection is null.

Automatic Rehabilitation of the insured sum, limits and sub-limits, with the collection of an additional premium pro rata of the rehabilitated amount. The premium for rehabilitation will be determined based on applying the rate set for the policy to the current amount declared by the insured and included in the policy, understanding the latter as 100% of the value exposed to risk. The calculation of the premium will also consider the percentage of reduction of the Compensation Limit and the time remaining between the date of occurrence of the loss and the expiration of the insurance. Thus, for example, if 50% of the Limit is consumed in an event, the premium to be charged will correspond to the application of the rate on 50% of the value exposed to risk mentioned above and for the days remaining for the expiration of the policy. .

Event Clause, 72 hours:

It implies each and every one of the losses or series of losses that arise or are directly caused by an event. However, the duration and scope of each event must be limited to property loss or direct property damage occurring within a consecutive 72-hour period. Said 72-hour period may not be extended after the expiration of this Insurance, unless the Insured first suffers material loss or direct material damage before the expiration of this Insurance and within said period of 72 consecutive hours. Likewise, no period of 72 consecutive hours may begin prior to the entry into force of this Insurance.

Clause waives the right of subrogation against the insured, contractors, subcontractors and consultants working for the insured, Directors, Executives, employees, and / or service providers of the Insured.

Movable and immovable property underground are covered.

Compensation basis: New value.

The concept of rubble is understood not only to include the remains or damage of the insured work itself, but also the entry of elements unrelated to the work, such as sediment, mud, landslides or the like.

Clause for compensation of insured amounts:

It is agreed and agreed that all the sums insured in this and other complementary or associated policies to the same insured and / or its related companies, may be offset both between the different insured matters of the same location, as well as between different insured addresses. This in order that a possible underinsurance is determined based on the total amount covered and not only based on the insured value of the item or subject matter. Consequently, for purposes of determining whether the application of apportionment in case of claims is appropriate, this can only be confirmed if underinsurance persists after applying the Leeway Clause and compensate for any possible underinsurance in accordance with the aforementioned.

Limits and sublimits operate in excess of the deductible.

Pair and Play Clause:

In the case of goods whose unit consists of more than one piece for the purposes of determining the unit value of compensation. the number of pieces that constitute a unit of sale of the good will be considered.

Preparation of Claims: This insurance is expanded to include the reasonable expenses that the Insured or their representatives incur in the investigation, preparation, quantification, presentation, certification, verification and / or negotiation of a claim resulting from a loss that is would indemnify under this policy. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Insurers will not be liable hereunder for expenses incurred by the Insured when using the services of a public adjuster or attorney.

This includes various expenses for the settlement of claims incurred by the Insured's Insurance Services Team, [which will be subject to the sub-limit indicated in particular conditions in the event of any event. "].

The early termination of the policy carried out at the request of the Insured, implies the return to the Insured of the part of the premium corresponding to the period of validity that remains for the end of the contract.

The deductible for damages due to BI / loss of entry for rent, must be calculated on the loss and not on the insured amount.

Money, currency, bills, coins, bank documents, invoices or other values of a similar nature are covered.

SECURITY DETAILS

(Re)insurer's liability several not joint

The liability of a (re)insurer under this contract is several and not joint with other (re)insurers party to this contract. A (re)insurer is liable only for the proportion of liability it has underwritten. A (re)insurer is not jointly liable for the proportion of liability underwritten by any other (re)insurer. Nor is a (re)insurer otherwise responsible for any liability of any other (re)insurer that may underwrite this contract.

The proportion of liability under this contract underwritten by a (re)insurer (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together) is shown next to its stamp. This is subject always to the provision concerning "signing" below.

In the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, each member of the syndicate (rather than the syndicate itself) is a (re)insurer. Each member has underwritten a proportion of the total shown for the syndicate (that total itself being the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together). The liability of each member of the syndicate is several and not joint with other members. A member is liable only for that member's proportion. A member is not jointly liable for any other member's proportion. Nor is any member otherwise responsible for any liability of any other (re)insurer that may underwrite this contract. The business address of each member is Lloyd's, One Lime Street, London EC3M 7HA. The identity of each member of a Lloyd's syndicate and their respective proportion may be obtained by writing to Market Services, Lloyd's, at the above address.

Proportion of liability

Unless there is "signing" (see below), the proportion of liability under this contract underwritten by each (re)insurer (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together) is shown next to its stamp and is referred to as its "written line".

Where this contract permits, written lines, or certain written lines, may be adjusted ("signed"). In that case a schedule is to be appended to this contract to show the definitive proportion of liability under this contract underwritten by each (re)insurer (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together). A definitive proportion (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of a Lloyd's syndicate taken together) is referred to as a "signed line". The signed lines shown in the schedule will prevail over the written lines unless a proven error in calculation has occurred.

Although reference is made at various points in this clause to "this contract" in the singular, where the circumstances so require this should be read as a reference to contracts in the plural.
